PROFILE

Law student at Bayero University, Kano, building a track record in moot court, legal research and legal drafting. My main interests are constitutional law and dispute resolution, and I'm working towards a career in arbitration. I'm a student member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a Regional Director of the Federation of African Law Students. Outside the law, I build websites and AI-assisted workflows, and I put them to work on my own legal writing and publishing.

EDUCATION

Bayero University, Kano — Faculty of Law 2026 – Present

LL.B (Law), in view. Currently in Level 1 (LL.B I). Coursework includes Constitutional Law, Logic and Philosophy, Social and Political Philosophy, and Islamic Jurisprudence (Shari'ah).

MOOT COURT & ADVOCACY

- Competed in several moot court competitions, writing memorials, analysing cases, researching the law and arguing orally.
- Took part in International Humanitarian Law (IHL) memorial drafting and advocacy.
- Took part in FDI Moot activities, which introduced me to international investment-dispute issues.
- Working knowledge of appellate procedure, the Court of Appeal Rules, and civil and criminal procedure.
- Scored 100/100 in the Student Union Bar Examination.
- Write legal briefs, articles and case notes, with a focus on clear, well-supported argument.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- Aim: to practise in international and commercial arbitration, with mediation and conciliation as a strong second interest.
- Attended webinars and sessions on arbitration, mediation and conciliation.
- Currently studying arbitration procedure and mediation practice, and looking at student and early-career routes with the Nigerian Institute of Chartered Arbitrators (NICArb).

TECHNOLOGY & AI

- Designed and built my own portfolio website with AI-assisted tools. It includes a publications section for my legal articles.

- Built automated workflows with Make, Claude Projects, Gemini Gems and custom GPTs for research, drafting and publishing.
- Set up a publishing workflow that prepares posts for Facebook, X and LinkedIn and adds articles to my website.
